INFOPACK

TAHR - PROJECT OVERVIEW

AIM

In line with the European Convention on Human Rights and the values of the European Commission and the Council of Europe, the project “Talk & Act on Human Rights” (TAHR) aims to better equip youth workers to promote participatory and constructive dialogue on human rights among young people, through non-formal education.

OBJECTIVES

- Foster dialogue, intercultural learning and European identity;
- Provide non-formal and informal learning opportunities for the educational and professional development of youth workers on the topic of human rights;
- Increase awareness in participants on socially relevant issues, stimulating engagement in society and active participation, including increased activism of participants upon return to their countries through quality local socio-educational animation ratics with real impact on beneficiaries;
- Develop approaches and working methodologies related to digital and smart youth work animation to merge the training theme with modern challenges and communication channels;
- Provide a venue for meeting and exchanging best practices in order to create networking opportunities and build a community of youth workers capable of sustaining quality youth projects and activities.

TRAVEL

The meeting point will be on 09/05/2025, between 16:00-20:00, at Ostello Bassano del Grappa (just 10 min walk from Bassano del Grappa train station)

For those flying in, we suggest arriving at Venice Marco Polo airport, from which you can take a bus to Mestre train station and then a train to Bassano del Grappa train station (you can book tickets on Trenitalia or Trainline)

Other, slightly less convenient, possibilities are Treviso, Verona or Bologna airports

Avoid flying via Milan airports as they are very far and more complicated to reach

KEY NOTES

- Please, email your itinerary for approval to euprojects@amicidelvillaggio.it before booking any ticket
- Keep all travel documents (booking confirmations, receipts, boarding passes...) for reimbursement
- Reimbursement will be made upon delivery of proof documents in the weeks following the preliminary visit
- Reimbursement is up to a max of 309€ (as per Erasmus+ distance calculator)

★ See you soon!
